

So We Would Know

A Life of Fear Shows What You're Filled With John 6:35

John 6:35 Jesus replied, "I am the bread of life.
No one who comes to Me will ever be hungry again.
Those who believe in Me will never thirst.

NLT

1. The quest of life begins with _____ the right questions to ask rather than just getting the answers.
2. There is a big difference between existing and living. And living has nothing do to with your _____.
3. By announcing He is the Bread of Life Jesus is saying he is the _____ and _____ of real life.
4. By ourselves we are able to sustain existence, but Christ, the Bread of Life, is offering us life. The Creator of Life is the _____ who can make this offer.

5. The Bread of Life comes into our existence and brings _____
6. This bread is _____, but it was incredibly _____.

For next time please read John 6:39-59 and look at the following questions:

1. Can you lose your salvation?
2. Why did so many listeners leave and walk away from Jesus?
3. Why do people still walk away from what Jesus offers?
4. Why is it sometimes difficult to understand what Jesus is saying?
5. How does faith come into play when it comes to understanding God?