

Exodus 10.21

Negotiating with God

1. What would make anyone think they can actually _____ with Creator God?
2. We have been taught or swayed to believe that the God of our religion is not or might not be Creator God; Creator of _____.
3. The reality I don't like to admit to is that I have _____ or control.

Ephesians 3:20 Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us,...

NIV

4. You might say with your mouth that God is all powerful, but you must know it in your heart and be in awe of who He is. Without the total awe of God people think they can actually _____ with Him.
5. Religion is a behavioral regimen a person performs in order to extract a desired _____ from the one who is at the focal point of my religion.
6. Do you ever find yourself _____ with God (or at least your real motivation for the "religious" things you do are really an attempt ... feeble as it is ... to negotiate with God)?

Lesson #43

7. How do people attempt to _____ with God?
 - a. Some people _____ thinking this obedience is making a deal with God.
 - b. Some people serve or volunteer thinking they are _____ special favor with God.
 - c. Some people do, give or serve as a means of trying to _____ or pay back for the sin in their lives.
 - d. Some people think they already have negotiable power by nature of the thought that they don't see themselves _____ other people.

Mark 10:17-22

8. We often use our good behaviors or religious exercises in an attempt to negotiate around our tightly grasped area of sin or idols, hoping God won't make us _____ them up to him.
9. It is an incredibly freeing realization to know I come to God with nothing, but I don't need anything. He has _____ I need.
10. Trust God completely. Follow God completely. Obey God completely. God has already _____ your life and salvation!
