

Exodus 10.27-29

When You Can't See

1. It is important to understand _____ and see it for what it is.
 2. Spiritual blindness for pagans, and even for those who know God, has always been a _____.
 3. Spiritual blindness comes from trusting in my growing _____ rather than trusting in God.
 4. We already have a predisposition to pursue the things we want, regardless of what we've been taught is best for us. Satan is a master at emphasizing and justifying those _____.
 5. Hardening of the heart comes from an improper diet; allowing ourselves to spend time _____ on thoughts that are contrary to God's will for us.
- Genesis 3:6 The woman was convinced. The fruit looked so fresh and delicious, and it would make her so wise! So she ate some of the fruit. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her. Then he ate it, too. NLT
6. Pharaoh, like Adam and Eve, had seen the power of God, but they each found a way to dismiss God's power from their decision-making process. Amazingly, God _____ it. Tragically, this freedom God allowed hardened their hearts.
 7. I am already predisposed toward rebellion because I allow appetites to dwell in my head (appetites that are contrary to God which means they are unhealthy for me to begin with). But I want them...and then Satan moves in to _____ the _____.

Lesson #44

8. How do I get my sight back?

Luke 18:35 As they approached Jericho, a blind beggar was sitting beside the road.

a. Realize that I bring nothing of value to God's table. I am a blind _____.

³⁶ When he heard the noise of a crowd going past, he asked what was happening. ³⁷ They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was going by. ³⁸ So he began shouting, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

b. Understand that getting your spiritual vision back is so important that you won't be _____ about begging.

³⁹ The crowds ahead of Jesus tried to hush the man, but he only shouted louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

c. Don't allow anyone to deter you or distract you from coming back to Christ; be _____.

⁴⁰ When Jesus heard him, he stopped and ordered that the man be brought to him. ⁴¹ Then Jesus asked the man, "What do you want me to do for you?" "Lord," he pleaded, "I want to see!" ⁴² And Jesus said, "All right, you can see! Your faith has healed you." ⁴³ Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus, praising God. And all who saw it praised God, too. NLT

d. To get your sight and keep your sight you have to _____ in the One who gives sight.

9. To keep your sight you must keep following Jesus rather than your own desires. It's only Jesus you can _____.

2 Corinthians 10:5 We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. NIV
