

Exodus 15

Practice What You Praise

1. Sundays are when we gather to praise, but Mondays give us the opportunity to practice what we _____.
2. Praising God after His blessings ought to lead us to _____ Him during the next difficulty.
The praise should lead to faith.

Exodus 15: 22 Then Moses led the people of Israel away from the Red Sea, and they moved out into the desert of Shur. They traveled in this desert for three days without finding any water. <sup>23</sup> When they came to the oasis of Marah, the water was too bitter to drink. So they called the place (which means "bitter"). <sup>24</sup> Then the people complained and turned against Moses. "What are we going to drink?" they demanded. NLT

3. Your faith is not something you store in church and check out on Sundays. Your faith is something you store in your _____... and take with you. Then you look at life through your faith in God in every interaction of every minute of every day.

Romans 8:31 What shall we say about such wonderful things as these? If God is for us, who can ever be against us? <sup>32</sup> Since He did not spare even His own Son but gave Him up for us all, won't He also give us everything else? <sup>(33)</sup> <sup>34</sup> Who then will condemn us? No one—for Christ Jesus died for us and was raised to life for us, and He is sitting in the place of honor at God's right hand, pleading for us. <sup>35</sup> Can anything ever separate us from Christ's love? Does it mean He no longer loves us if we have trouble or calamity, or are persecuted, or hungry, or destitute, or in danger, or threatened with death? <sup>(36)</sup> <sup>37</sup> No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us. <sup>38</sup> And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. <sup>39</sup> No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord. NLT

4. The mental anguish I spend on worry and fear:
  - a. Is a total waste of _____

Proverbs 12:25 Worry weighs a person down;
an encouraging word cheers a person up. NLT

Matthew 6:27-34, Philippians 4:6

- b. Reveals I am not _____ the lessons God is teaching me
- c. Reveals I still really don't _____ a totally trustworthy, Almighty God...My Father
- d. Shows me I am letting difficulty or even the possibility of difficulty, _____ me. I'm not taking captive every thought.

2 Corinthians 10:5 ESV
We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ,

5. Your life either praises or complains to God. A life of faith declares that you know who He is. A life of fear and worry is a statement up _____ the love or ability of your Father.
6. When it comes to the facing the difficulties of life, we are truly the losers when we don't _____ what we _____.
